Thank you for your interest in the University of North Dakota Resident Satisfaction Survey. The survey collection process is now complete. Thank you again, to all those who participated.

This Resident Satisfaction Survey is designed to assess the demographic characteristics of the students living in the residential halls at the University of North Dakota as well as their satisfaction toward housing staff, maintenance and custodial staff, policies and procedures, facilities, dining services, programming, and hall government.

The last survey was conducted in the fall of 2001. Some of the results can be accessed from this website. This is the first time an online survey is being used with our resident students. Two follow-up mailings of the survey announcement are sent to nonrespondents to promote the participation and to make the results as representative as possible. The last day to participate in the survey is December 13, 2003.

Please take a moment to share your thoughts and suggestions. Your input will help the University of North Dakota improve your residence hall living environment. Thank you very much for your participation.

The participants have the option of responding to this survey either via the World Wide Web or via a traditional paper questionnaire on PDF format. Please enter your password to participate in this survey.
