University of North Dakota

2001-2002 Environmental Assessment Survey

Jean Chen
Office of Institutional Research

January 4, 2002
2001-2002 Housing Satisfaction Survey

Of responding students in the residence halls

- 99.2% feel the dining centers are kept clean
- 99.0% think the information in the calendar handbook is helpful
- 98.5% feel the dining staff are courteous and helpful
- 97.9% said the custodians are friendly and helpful
- 97.4% enjoy the atmosphere in the dining centers
- 97.3% try specialty bars in the dining centers
- 96.9% feel safe in their residence hall
- 95.7% are satisfied with the speed of service in the dining centers
- 95.7% feel the service centers provide adequate services
- 95.6% are comfortable talking with their RA about a UND concern/issue
- 94.5% feel service center personnel are helpful and courteous
- 93.4% feel hall staff enforce policies fairly
- 92.0% feel safe in tunnels that link residence hall complexes and dining centers
- 91.2% feel staff answered questions, when visiting the housing office
- 89.8% were satisfied with their assigned room
- 89.5% use open dining
- 88.8% utilize Wilkerson Late Night hours (up 4.5%)
- 85.5% feel noise from roommate is not a problem
- 85.3% enjoy ARH’s Res Life Cinema (Channel 17)
- 85.2% enjoy living in the residence halls
- 84.1% are satisfied with the variety of food offered in the dining centers
- 83.3% said noise from the room next door is not a problem
- 81.4% have computers in their rooms (up from 71% in 2000 and 50% in 1998)