DEPENDENT STUDENT

- 75.* Write in the number of people that your parents will support between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010. Include your parents and yourself. Include your parents' other children if they get more than half of their support from your parents. Include other people only if they now live with and get more than half of their support from your parents and will continue to get this support between July 1, 2009, and June 30, 2010. (Support includes money, gifts, loans, housing, food, clothes, car, medical and dental care, payment of college costs, etc.)
- 76.* Write in the number of people from question 67, including yourself, who will be going to college between July 1, 2009, and June 30, 2010. DO NOT INCLUDE YOUR PARENTS, include only students enrolling (or who are accepted for enrollment) for at least 6 credit hours in at least one term. If the school uses clock hours, include only students attending at least 12 clock hours per week. The student must be working toward a degree or certificate leading to a recognized education credential at a college that is eligible to participate in any of the Federal student aid programs.

If you are not sure what is meant by credit or clock hours, or a "recognized education credential," contact the financial aid administrator at the appropriate school. Also, contact the financial aid administrator, if you are not sure whether the college is eligible to participate in the Federal student aid programs.
